CIVIL WAR VET DIES AT HOME HERE TODAY

Aaron Greathouse Succumbs to Infirmities of Old Age; Funeral Saturday

Taps were sounded early this morning for another veteran of the Civil war when Aaron S. Greathouse, who would have been 84 years old this coming October, succumbed at his home on Mill street to a complication of diseases attendant upon his advanced age.

The death of Mr. Greathouse reduced the number of Civil war veterans residing in Mt. Vernon and immediate vicinity to eight. For the first time Mr. Greathouse was unable to participate in the Memorial Day program of the Grand Army yesterday.

Funeral on Saturday

Funeral services will be held at 2:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon at the late residence on Mill street. Burial will be in Bellefontaine cemetery. The Rev. R. E. Badger, pastor of First M. E. church, and Harrow post of the Grand Army will be in charge.

The deceased was thrice married. His first wife was nee Kittie Smith. Following her death he was united in marriage to Fannie Mitchell. A few years ago after the death of the second wife he married Mrs. Mary E. Whipple, who survives him.

Mr. Greathouse was the son of John T. and Eliza Browning Greathouse, pioneer residents of Point township. Of eight children born to the Point pioneers but one survives, James M. Greathouse, of East Fourth street, a brother of the late deceased.

Saw Service in Cavalry

The late veteran enlisted in Company K, 10th Indiana Cavalry in 1862 and served until the close of the Civil war. He had a particularly meritorious military record as a scout.
